"QUEEN CITY OF THE BITUMINOUS"

Jerome's first House of Learning and the Playground. In the early 1900's, Jerome built its first school house. This was the beginning of Jerome's education.

As we, the members of the class of 1975, see twelve years of schooling pass quickly in front of us, we think of many memories, and why we are glad to live in Conemaugh Township. We see our families, friends, and teachers, but most of all our parents, to whom we dedicate our yearbook as a token of appreciation. In dedicating this to our parents, we decided to add a little to show how much we do care about them.

This year we decided to do something different with our yearbook. We have tried to make it more personal and interesting to people of all ages. We want to bring back memories to our parents and grandparents while making new ones for ourselves. As one looks through our book, many changes can be noticed. One of these changes is the pictures we've added from former yearbooks and ones we got from friends. We want to extend our thanks to all who have helped us. These pictures may remind you of "your" days here, and in doing this, we can help share "our" days with you.

The booming city of Jerome wasn't satisfied with their first school house, so they built a second one which was bigger and

The Queen City of the Bituminous itself! Jerome started out as a mining town in 1904, and continued to grow to its present status.

The Big Band Era in Jerome? Yes, even then, Jerome, Pennsylvania, had its own Citizen's Band!

"I like Conemaugh Township because" ". . . . of Community Spirit. People are friendly and helpful." Roger Knepper

". . . . it is made up of a wide variety of very different people, yet we all have a lot in common and like a lot of the same things."

Conemaugh, a small Indian village, was located on the present site of Johnstown. The word itself is said to mean "long fishing place." In 1801 the February Sessions created Conemaugh Township. At that time the township was very large, including much of Northern Somerset County and the southern part of Cambria County. There were ninety taxables living in the township when it was formed in 1810. There were 53 cabins and 15 houses with about 300 inhabitants. Joseph Johns, the founder of Johnstown, is buried in the family plot on a farm near Davidsville. Among the early settlers are found the names of Buck, Blough, Hershberger, Croyle, Miller, and Thomas. They were mostly of German origin. Included were Lutherans, Evangelicals, United Brethren, and the plain people-German Baptist Brethren (Dunkards), Mennonites, and Amish. "Pennsylvania Dutch" was the community dialect. Around 1800 Isaac Kaufman owned 1600 acres of land around Davidsville. His estate was valued at a quarter million dollars.

". . . . it's like one big happy family." Helen Constable

". . . . it's not crowded, the scenery is always pretty and the people are friendly."

".... of solitude."
Nancy Custer

". . . . of all the wonderful memories it left me with." Cindy Zwick

"The reason I like living in Conemaugh Township is the High School. Right now my education is very important to me and CTAHS is helping me become the type of person I wish to be. I've become involved athletically as well as scholastically at CTAHS and this has added to my learning. From my friends and the people of Conemaugh Township, I've been given many values I will always remember. Athletic events, parades, the wooded areas, new things to discover, always able to find something to do, and of course, the people are just a few of the reasons I enjoy living in Conemaugh Township and attending CTAHS. Every leaf that falls, every word spoken will live on as a memory. As I leave the area upon graduating, I know I will return some day with many fond memories of how I had grown in this area. I know, when I do return, CT will still be the same friendly and beautiful township that I so fondly know now. I know if the people can't find a way, they'll make one."

Cindy Sambor

"I like Conemaugh Township because . . ." ". . . Some of the best memories I have started at CTAHS. I will never forget all the great people I met there and all the pride the kids from CT have." Lynn Harshberger

".... After being away for 5 years at college, I'm very happy to be living in C.T. again." Carle (Thomas) Allen

". . . The people here are friendly." Karen Young

FROM TOP TO BOTTOM: (1) Could it be the Injun Engine #1? This train sits on an old abandoned railroad track in Hollsopple. (2) Even back then the students tried to brownie up teachers! (3) Does this remind you of the bomb threats? This old fire truck may have come to the rescue of students in 1935, but since then, the Hollsopple Fire Department has acquired newer and more efficient trucks.

".... Anomymous." Jaye Anne Hunter

".... The close-knit community." Nancy Cottom

". . . . The people here-they are a lot nicer than I thought they'd be. I doubt if the students from the school I came from would be that friendly to a new student." Jodi Fisher

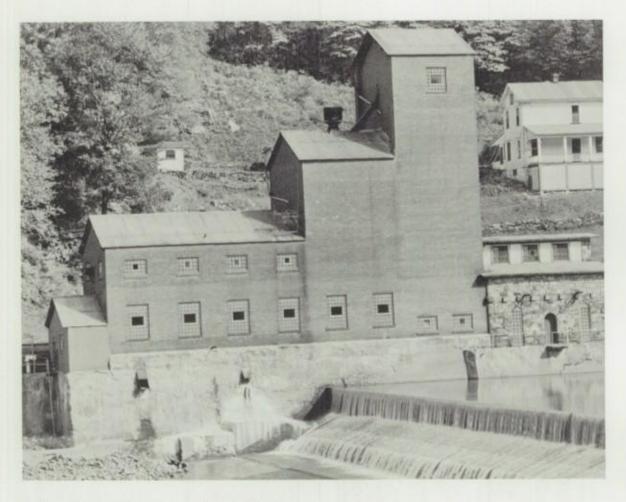

".... My grandparents." Cindy Matsko

". . . . The fact that we're number one." Julie Butchko

". . . . It is an excellent area to grow up in because the pace is slow, there are still places of solitude where a person can communicate with nature, and most people have good hearts." Gale Shipley

FROM TOP TO BOTTOM: (1) Our Injun Engine pulled ahead and left the poor caboose behind! This is part of the train located in Hollsopple. (2) After leaving the bulls out for the summer of '43, Miss Ethel Berkey and Miss E.J. Will show a smile of relief. (3) A picturesque postcard? No, it is the covered bridge located on the Somerset Pike.

Is this the border to nowhere? Border Dam is located, on the Stonycreek, near Carpenters Park.

". . . . No matter where I go or what I do Conemaugh Township will always mean so many memories to me-the memories each of us have after we leave the school, the good times we have had in it, and most of all the people which make C.T. what it is."

". . . . It has a lot of nice, friendly people." Karen Colclough, Linda Yoder, Trina Harman, Terry Coughenour, Grizz, Dave Thompson, Connie Shetler.

". . . . I believe the people here are closer to each other and friendlier than people in other high schools." Anne Beatty

". . . . Everybody can be an individual, and have their own opinions, but still be friends, and best of all, still work together to make C.T. the best!" Jamie Feathers

". . . . The quality of Township's education is high, the quality of it's student life is high and I guess that's a major part of what it takes to make a high quality tomorrow." Bill Pebley

". . . . I think it's an all around great school. We've got a great athletics department and good school spirit. I'm proud to be a member of the student body here at C.T." Ginny Miller

". . . . It has an outstanding atmosphere for developing a student's personality and character that will be used in his future life."

JoAnn Heckler

". . . . The students uphold the great traditions and pride in Conemaugh Township High School." Tom Jordan

". . . . The enthusiasm that the students bring forth in school activities." Greg Varner

If you like old cars, here's one you will love. Do you think its owners could have been Bonnie and Clyde?

"The atmosphere of the area, the attitudes of the people, and the friendliness of all make Conemaugh Township special for me. No matter what my future holds or where I may go, I will always remember the people I met at CT and how even after graduation everyone from past years kept in touch and remained friends. I know of no other place I'd rather live." Kay Miller

Here is a peaceful spot in the CTAHS area where many students throughout the years spent many serene moments trying not only to "hook" the fish but also get hooked themselves.

"I like Conemaugh Township because "

"....it's so rustic." Mary Anne Golden

"... of the faculty. I personally feel we have the best teachers in the area. Also, the growing of athletic programs and the new mini-courses and English electives."

Bob Cotchen

". . . . of the three stooges-Mr. Hemphill, Mr. Michaels, Mr. Duncan, and Mr. Williams. I also like the fact that here students are individuals, not merely numbers or faces to teachers."

". . . . I think it's one of the better townships to live and raise a family in. There's a lot of community spirit, and I appreciate all the churches."

". . . . the people of the area are really friendly. I think that this makes the township so great."

Trina Harman

". . . . of the great community togetherness. I sometimes feel sorry for those who have never had a chance to be a part of a community as close as ours. The people of Conemaugh Township are the greatest people anywhere; they make Conemaugh Township what it is."

Kathy Constable

"I like this year's senior class the best; it was almost as good as ours. The class of '73 can't be beat, but the class of '75 is really great. I think their senior year was just as fantastic as ours."

The school board plays a great part in the present and future at CTAHS. They are the ones who make all the important school decisions. Here are some thoughts of what some of the members think about the students and CTAHS:

"CT's the greatest-the best administration, the best teachers, and the best students anywhere." John Chobany

"CT's a place where everybody is comfortable with everyone else." Lowell Shaffer

"I think we have one of the finest schools in Pennsylvania and the finest student group." Robert Valentine

The members of the school board are (FRONT ROW, L-R): Mr. Robert J. Valentine, president; Mr. John Chobany, district superintendent; Mr. Donald L. Stover; Mr. Michael B. Springer, secretary; (SECOND ROW): Mr. John P.K. Miller, vice-president; Mr. William Degory; Mr. Lowell Shaffer; Mr. Wayne A. Kauffman; Mr. Charles R. Pipta, treasurer; and Attorney Eugene Fike II, school board solicitor. Absent: William Pebley.

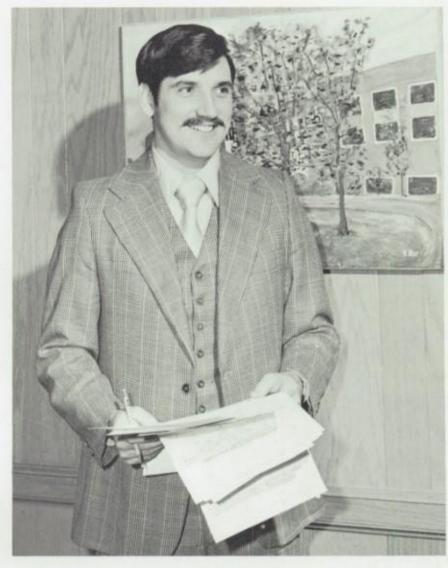

These three seniors are so close with their fathers that they want to come to school with them, but actually their fathers are dedicated school board members. Like father, like son, are Mr. William Pebley and his son Bill, and Mr. Michael B. Springer and Craig. On the other hand, like father, like daughter, are Mr. William Degory and his daughter Lisa.

-ADMINISTRATION—

Mr. John Chobany is the District Superintendent. He is also Chief School Administrator for the Johnstown Vo-Tech, Chairman of the Conemaugh Township Christmas Parade Committee, and a member of the Conemaugh Township Rotary Club. His hobbies include sports. He has been with the school system for nine years. Robert F. Harris is the Administrative Assistant. His hobbies include model building, reading, and sky diving as a spectator sport. Mr. Harris commends the "cooperativeness of the community, students, and the staff to accept changes and improvements." He is in his second year with the school system.

Mr. James L. Herdman is the High School Principal. His hobbies include reading. Mr. Herdman says, "Of the many assets Conemaugh Township has, the most outstanding is its people." He has been with CTAHS for six years.

Mr. Richard M. Matey is the Assistant High School Principal. He enjoys bowling, golf, and reading. "I like Conemaugh Twp. Area High School because everyone here works together in upholding its reputation as an excellent high school." He has been with CTAHS for three years.

MRS. MARGARET THOMAS, Mr. Herdman's secretary, has been at CTAHS for eleven years. Her hobbies are sewing, crocheting, gardening, and watching sports. She enjoys camping and hiking. What she likes most about CTAHS is, "the students."

MISS DEBORAH TELENKO is the secretary for the District Superintendent. She is a 1972 graduate of CTAHS. She enjoys bowling, sewing, music, sports, and taking care of her plants.

MISS LOIS WILLIAMSON, who is Mr. Matey's secretary, has been with this school system for thirty two years. Her hobbies are ceramics, reading, photography, and growing flowers. Her special interesting point is that she has season tickets for Pittsburgh Steeler games.

MRS. BARBARA A. KORHUT, who is the Senior High Guidance Counselor, has been with CTAHS for three years. She is the advisor of the majorettes and scholastic quiz team. Her hobbies include sewing, tennis, and reading. What she likes about CTAHS is, "the enthusiasm of the students and their school spirit.

MRS. JEAN GINDLESPERGER, who was a CTAHS graduate, serves as secretary to Mr. Brown and Mrs. Korhut. She is the advisor for the school bank. Her hobbies include camping and sports. One point she makes perfectly clear is, "We can be proud of our

MR. THOMAS L. BROWN is the Junior High Guidance Counselor and a teacher of the ninth grade guidance class. His hobbies include reading, sports, and family outings. He is student council advisor to Student Forum, and a representative of the new program sponsored by the Dept. of Public Education. When asked what he likes about Conemaugh Township, Mr. Brown said, "I enjoy phone conversations and conferences with parents from Conemaugh Township. I have found almost every parent to be cooperative and genuinely interested in their son or daughter's academic and social development."

Minnie Barkley, Christine Wood, Gloria Smith, Jean Rohde, Edna Naugle, Edith Salain, Verna Temyer, and Caroline Anderson.

"All right, which one of you is calling in the bomb threats?" The members of the PUPIL PERSONNEL COMMITTEE are: (L-R) John Chobany, Robert Harris, Thomas Brown, Barbara Korhut, Nancy Thomas, James Herdman, and Richard Matey.

MRS. NANCY THOMAS has been the school nurse for 10 years. She received a B.S. in Education at Indiana University and the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown. Mrs. Thomas is the advisor for the Future Nurses of America and enjoys camping as her hobby.

MISS LUCY CORTESE has been the tax collector and office clerk at CTAHS for 32 years. She is a CTAHS graduate of the Class of 1942. Miss Cortese enjoys reading and gardening and especially enjoyed two trips to Italy where she visited relatives.

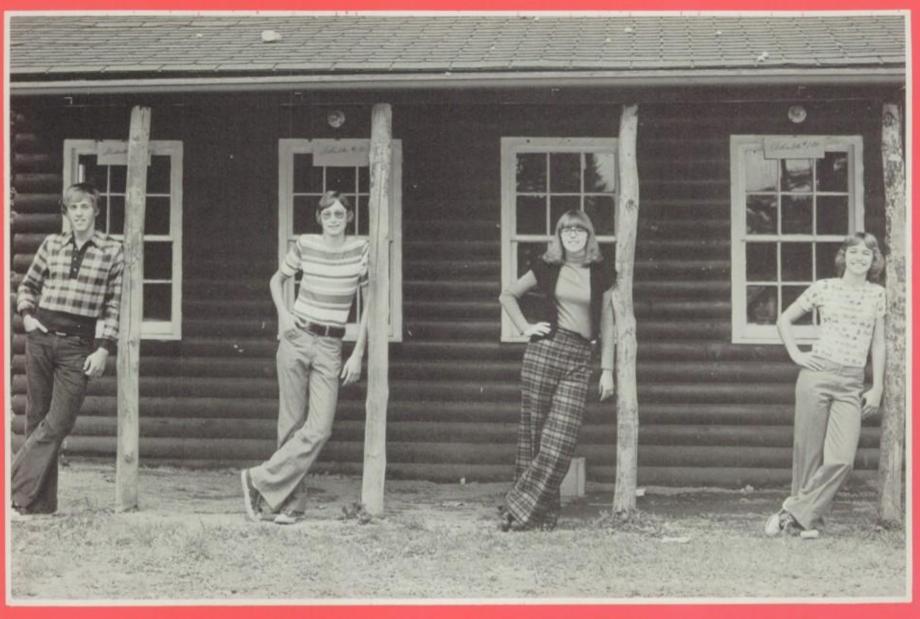

MRS. NANCY GOLISH, (BOTTOM LEFT), Mrs. Keim's secretary, is a graduate of CTAHS and has been here for six years. Her hobbies are sewing, painting, and music. She enjoys, "meeting and working with the many people involved in the educational system of Conemaugh Township."

We, the class of 1975, would like to thank all the members of the faculty and administration for giving us a chance to show our abilities and for teaching us the importance of responsibility and success.

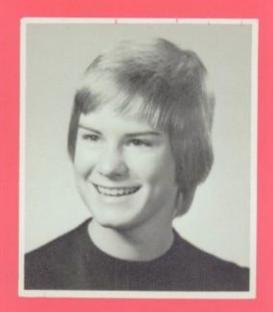

The outstanding members of the class of 1975 began using these aspects during our freshman year, as we surpassed our magazine campaign goal by $996.00. As sophomores, the Christmas dance, "Frosted Fantasies," was a complete success. Our junior year was highlighted with the production of the Junior Class Play, "Headin' for a Weddin'" and the Junior-Senior Prom, "Yesterday Once More."

Noon; treasurer, Trina Harman, take a rest from their usual industrious activity of overseeing the great class of "75."

This year's Senior Class Play, "The Babbling Brooks," and our Valentine Dance helped to complete our senior year. As the "Injun Engine" pulled into the station with a first-place trophy, the class of 1975 could see a successful twelve years come to a close.

A special thanks goes to our class deans: Mr. Volk, Mr. Shank, Miss Tinkle, and Mrs. Litzinger. We thank them for all their time, patience, and guidance that have helped our class rise to success. As we leave Conemaugh Township High School, we will attempt to put to use the many things that we have learned so that we may all have a prosperous future.

"Wow! I need a rest after that class."

"No class, this measures 'angles' not 'angels'."

THEY KNOW THEIR MATH?

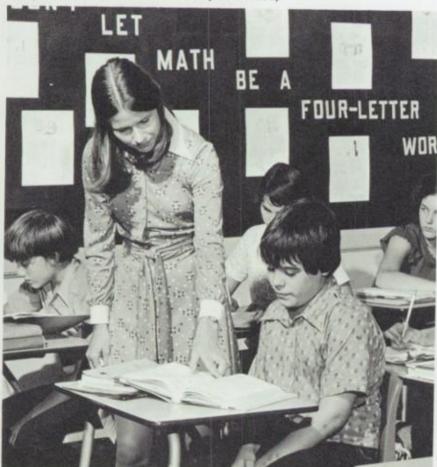

Could these people be our Math whiz kids? They are! These hard working people makeup our Math Department. They are (L-R): Mr. Michael J. DeBiase;

Mrs. Linda Litzinger; Mrs. Sallie Coughenour; and Mr. Frank Svarney.

"Did anyone see which way my class went?"

"Well, at least he had the right page. Now if only I could teach him something."

Mr. Joseph J. Majer; Mr. Robert L. Fuller; and Mr. Donald J. O'Connor.

"There are probably many things I could find that I like about Conemaugh Township, but at the top of the list would be the friendliness of the students."

Joseph Majer

"We all know that I have enough political resources to prevent anarchy in this class."

"I never knew that Mrs. Ickes had such an interesting gym class!"

"I like the 'smallness' and the semi-rural location of Conemaugh Township. The small enrollment permits closer contact between teachers and students."

Jim Matthews

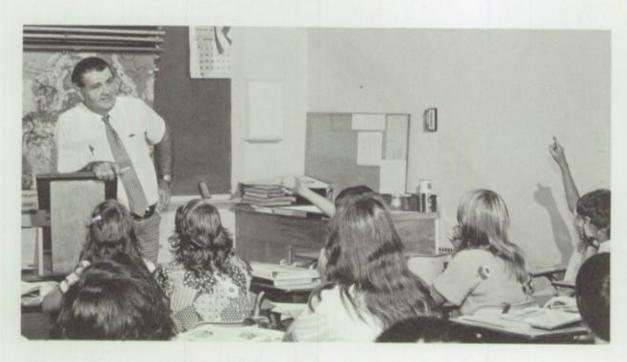

"In the past, I have enjoyed immensely the opportunity of teaching in Conemaugh Township. Materials for our particular subject or classroom were always available. The spirit and conduct of the students at all extra-curricular contests has always been exemplary. Above all else, the students themselves are the most wonderful and cooperative group of boys and girls in the nation."

Robert Fuller

"Men or mice?" Miss Romano teaches senior Public SQUEAKING.

"Through my many years, I have formed such fine friendships with my pupils and their families that I'm sure to always remember Conemaugh Township for its wonderful people." Elizabeth J. Will

"Some classes grow on you; others turn out to be crop failures."

Miss Tighe leads the righteous remnant through English class.

"It's interesting returning to my Alma Mater. I'm enjoying the changes, which are many, and reaquaintance with old friends and meeting new ones. I look forward to many challenging years here."

Thomas Bianco

"CTAHS is the best." Linda Tinkle

"Is there any other place?"
Pauline McFeathers

"At Conemaugh Township the students are friendly and courteous; they have an enthusiastic attitude toward learning. This makes teaching both enjoyable and challenging."

"Don't just stand there, guys, shine your sneakers or something."

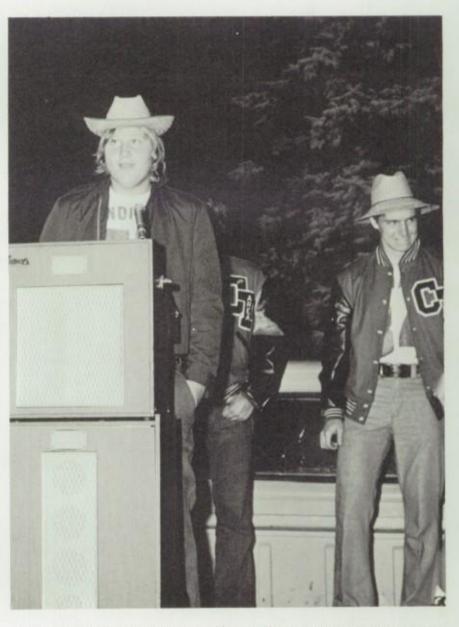

"I wonder if this is how Ginger Rogers started?"

"And now the #1 squaw of the year, Miss Joy Blough."

"Hey guys! I think the campfire got out of hand."

"Twinkle, twinkle little star, and boy will we send those devils far."

"What's this? Another Liza Minnelli?"

HOMECOMING '74

"Smile Joy, we're on candid camera!"

"Hey Sandy! Are those for me?"

The '74 Homecoming was an exciting night at CTAHS. It's an important night for the whole school. The highlight of the night is the crowning of the Queen, and the football game, which we won against the Red Devils of Central Cambria.

The Sophomore Class officers played an important role in making the Christmas Dance the success it was. They are (L-R) Marsha Sleek, Secretary; Doug Telenko, President; Rhonda Crist, Vice-President; Amy Cable, Treasurer.

"Chaperoning can't be all that fun, can it, Mr. Kirkwood, Mr. Cable?" (Maybe they see something we can't)! These were the chaperons for "Christmas Magic" held on December 14. The Violation provided the music.

"Oh what pain! Sue would you please get off my foot?" And then there's . . . "Jackie, have you heard a word I said, Jackie, Jackie wake up!"

These students, who belong to the jazz band, provide the school with pop music of today.

These students, the Teachers of Tomorrow, plan to be the future teachers of the USA. Their advisor is Mrs. Coughenour.

"Ann loves Drafting so much she even comes with a slight case of mono!" Their advisor is Mr. Burnworth.

These students, the French Club, take a particular interest in French customs, language, and history. Their advisor is Mrs. McFeaters.

These students, the Scholastic Quiz kids, are doing some studying up for their next opponents. Their advisor is Mrs. Korhut.

Klimek, Kay Miller, Gale Sheffler, Cheryl Shustrick, and Michelle Carrico. Jean Krassnoski was absent when the picture was taken.

Senior-Kay Miller

The first year is always the hardest so we were told. It was proven to us this year. The practices and hard work we put in proved successful but without the help of the band, we could never have made it.

Captain—Cheryl Shustrick

Senior-Billie Saylor

Senior-Michelle Klimek

In being first year "flaggies," the entire squad learned the importance of cooperation and togetherness. It also brought twelve gals together and caused lasting friendships to form. But on top of it all was the honor in being a part of the Band, and to all that helped us—thanks!

Head Majorette-Judy Risch

"Ready to start at any given moment are our alternate majorettes." They are (L-R) Linda Stayrook, Marion Garrety, Pauli Kuchman, Cindy Shaffer, and Margaret Blucas.

Senior—Susie Rudge

Senior-Jackie Saylor

Senior—Cindy Sambor

Our pretty majorettes brighten every parade, football game, and work hard for contests. These hard-working girls deserve a lot of credit. They are (L-R) Lisa Snyder, Jackie Saylor, Susie Rudge, Judy Risch, Cindy Sambor, Debbie Naugle, and Beth Verna.

These various musical groups provide fine entertainment at the annual Spring Concert. They are (CLOCKWISE) SAX SEXTET—June Gindlesperger, Robin Saylor, Gwen Miller, Lori Thomas, and Pattie Lucas. STRING SEXTET—Paulette Parlock, Ed Krause, Terry Coughenour, Pete Zupan, Trina Harman, Anne Beatty. CORNET QUARTET—Rick Todero, Mike Stevens, Pete Zupan, Tom Moran. WOODWIND ENSEMBLE—Nancy Cottom, John Schmeling, Mary Beatty, Lynne Goddard, Karen Eash, Sue Marlowe, Jackie Lambert, Karla Freeburg, Kathy Beatty. FLUTE TRIO—Nancy Custer, Karen Thomas, Debbie Kutchman.

The Junior High Band teaches aspiring young musicians the various techniques employed in performing with a large group.

The Brass Ensemble performs at the Spring Concert and also gives Christmas concerts at the high school and grade schools.

From their expressions it looks like the Trombone Trio has some thing up their sleeves. The members are Neal Mishler, Bob Cotchen, and Don Unger.

"The better part of one's life consists of his friendships."—
A. Lincoln.

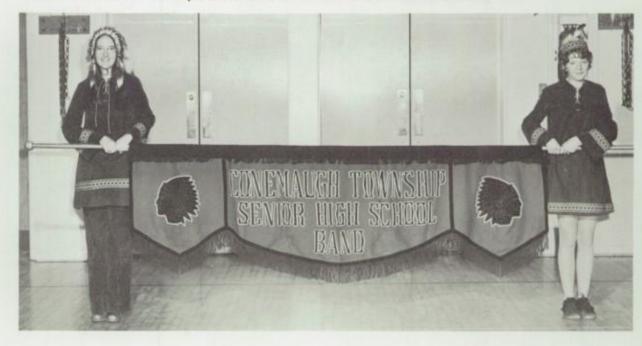

These senior band members know this is true because of all the good times they've shared during games and parades, and through all the hours of practicing. They helped make our band great!

The 1974-75 Band Queen is Nancy Custer. She represented the band in the Johnstown Christmas parade and the Davidsville parade.

The Davidsville Christmas parade wouldn't be the same without the band.

I see the Banner Carriers, (Cindy and Terri) and the banner, but where's the band?

The school orchestra provides its members with an excellent selection of all types of music.

The Assembly Band sparks pep and enthusiam at the Bonfire and pep rallies.

The Senior High Concert Band demonstrates its versatility in the wide range of musical numbers it performs.

- I like Conemaugh Township because ...
- ". . . of those very few understanding teachers, all my buds, my Scrub, and CT's super sports seasons." Patty Pipta
- ". . . with friends like mine everything's fun, especially lunch." Laura Siehl
- ". . .this is where I grew up. It's where I learned to think for myself and be myself." Cheryl Hostetler
- "... of the terrific people." Sharon Yoder
- ". . . Mr. Ricotta is more than just a wrestling coach." Jimmy Muir
- "... Toad's cool." Doug Telenko
- "... just because." Mark Saylor
- ". . . of sports, especially our great Girls' Basketball and football teams." Cindy Saylor
- ". . . of super Girls' Basketball team, teachers, and a special Township guy." Sue Saylor
- ". . . of the super kids, teachers, and especially the twirling flaggies." Tammy Layton
- ". . . of students, teachers, and the congenial atmosphere that's present all the time." Billie Saylor
- ". . . of the participation and enthusiasm of all the students during school events." Karen DeRubis

Welcome to the Harmony of the school; well not all of it but most of it. It may not be the greatest harmony, but we try and we try hard. In this modern age we live in, not many students want to sing religious music. I think the choir can be very proud of its concerts and the Seniors can be very proud, for it is their last year. Many memories will be kept on our minds.

Why, who could forget the swaying Christmas tree, singing the same verse 3 times at a concert or passing strange objects during a concert. The members make the choir, but Mrs. Kemp keeps it together and going. She deserves a lot of credit, too. To this year's choir I say you're the greatest choir, and I am very proud to be a part of it all.—The President.

The officers of the 1974-75 CTAHS Choir are (L-R) Gail Sleek and Cheryl Hostetler, Librarians; Kay Miller, Secretary-Treasurer; Mike Stevens, President; and Tony Rullo, Vice-President.

The band officers for 1974-75 are (L-R) Mike Stevens, Vice-President; Gail Sleek, Secretary-Treasurer; and Neal Mishler, President.

The band has participated in various activities this year. During half-time of football games, the band performed a variety of routines. Many long hours of practice were put into these routines during summer vacation, band camp, seventh periods, and Thursday evenings before the games. The band also performed in two Halloween parades at Johnstown and Windber. They were costumed as Spaniards and marched to the tune of "Macarena." Other parades in which the band participated were the UPJ Homecoming Parade, the Johnstown Christmas Parade, and the Davidsville Christmas Parade. The County Band Festival is another annual event in which the band took part. It was held at Forbes.

A new look was added to the band. Flag carriers added a new attraction to the halftime shows and to the overall appearance of the band.

Now we know who's been sabotaging the choir robes. The 10th Grade Trio!

Pam and Sue watch as Cindy demonstrates how to play a record.

These three girls comprise the Sr. Girls' Trio. They are Gail Sleek, Kay Miller, and Cheryl Hostetler. They've sung together throughout the last few years and have proven their singing abilities.

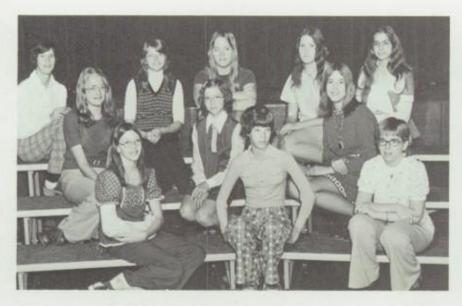

These super seniors helped make our choir the best.

The Senior Girls' Ensemble believe in starting each day with a song in their hearts.

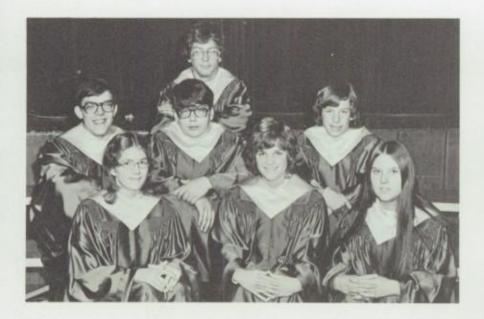

Here's a group to challenge the Vienna Boys' Choir. This group is the Sr. High Boys' Ensemble. How would you like to meet them in a dark alley (how about around a piano)?

This group of talented young girls makes up the Jr. High Girls' Ensemble.

These energetic boys make up the Jr. High Boys' Ensemble.

(ABOVE) These smiling faces belong to the choir alternates. (DIAGONALLY) The seventh grade chorus is under the direction of Mrs. Sandra Kemp. They also perform at the Jr. High Concert. (RIGHT) The eighth and ninth grade trio practices hard so its performance at the Jr. High Spring Concert will be the best possible.

The Sr. High Chorus is a group of young people who have an interest in music. They are directed by Mrs. Sandra Kemp.

This group of eighth and ninth graders makes up the Jr. High Chorus. They perform every spring at the Jr. High Concert.

We are the cheerleaders of Conemaugh Township. We back our teams with our spirit and hearts at every game, meet or match. Win or lose we're always behind them. We're more than just a smile; we're a lot of hard work and bruises and practice—but it's worth it! To know we represent our school is a super feeling, and better yet is doing something for Conemaugh Township. This year we won the Cheerleading Contest. Yes, we helped give honor to Conemaugh Township. Memories of the fun and happiness cheering has brought us will be with us forever. To those who have helped us, especially our advisor and our parents, we say thank you for your faith in us.

"Tears and fears and feeling proud," these are the feelings we have about this year's cheering, and we love it! It's fun to be a cheerleader, especially with people like you behind us.

Diane Suckovitch

Trina Harman, Captain

Sherry Szala

Jamie Feathers, Co-Captain

"We climbed the ladder of success right to the top!" say our contest cheerleaders.

An extremely difficult section is executed perfectly.

Another part of the Injun's Engine.

A fitting end to many months of dedication to hard work.

Ten brilliant smiles surround the coveted cup.

INJUN ENGINE

All aboard-Join our train, We're headin' for Victory Lane! Engine . . . black, Caboose . . . red, Injun Train pulls ahead. Flash the signal, start to roll, Clickety clack choo choo, Clickety clack choo choo, CT Express goes chuggin' thru, Trackin' on, Success is won, By Injun (ch ch) Engine (ch ch) Number ONE!

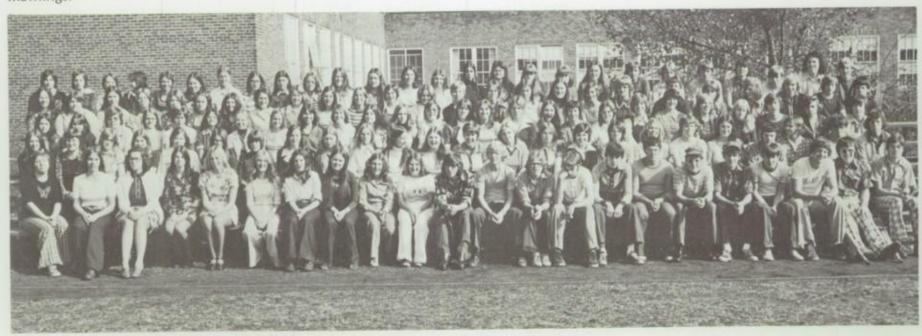

The Senior Pep Club is the backbone of enthusiasm and school spirit in our school activities.

Cheryl Hostetler and Beth Verna are CTAHS' two members of the Penn Traffic Teen Advisory Board. They represent our school in numerous activities, including a radio show on Saturday mornings.

These students form the Wrestling Committees, who help in organizing wrestling records, scorekeepers, and mat maids. Their advisor is Mr. Ricotta.

This is the Senior High Pep Club. With all of these students, is it any wonder that there is so much school spirit around?

Our Varsity Cheerleaders are always "smiling" since the "Injun Engine" became No. 1! The Engineers are as follows: Sheila Black, Diane Suckovitch, Sherry Szala, Lynn Williams, Advisor-Miss Romano, Captain-Trina Harman, Betty Lou Lazer, Co-Captain-Jamie Feathers, and Cheryl Hostetler. Karen Parkinson assisted Miss Romano.

1974-75 CHEERLEADERS

Next in line are the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, (FROM FRONT TO REAR): Judy Flick and Patti Smith; Debbie Blough, Patti Pipta, and Kathie Adams; Pam Dabbs, Amy Cable, and Kathy Koba.

This is the Junior High Girls' Presidential Physical Fitness Club. These girls show exceptional coordination in physical fitness. Their advisor is Mrs. Ickes.

"Rembrandts of America Unite!" is a deserving phrase of the artistic field. Their advisor is Mr. Kososki.

This group of students, who have "taken to the outdoors," is the ECO Club. These students have a desire to preserve environment. Their advisor is Mr. Shank.

As well as good opportunities in the academic field, CTAHS provides opportunities for advancement in the area of industrial arts.

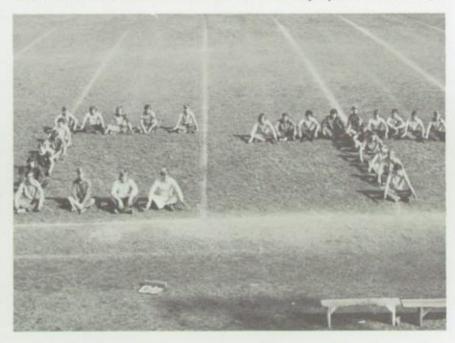

"What would school spirit be without signs? - and those signs without sign painters?" These students are to be thanked for making our games more exciting.

"Wait! The pyramid isn't done yet." The Varsity "C" Club is for those who have earned a letter in a varsity sport. Officers are

"It's the men from CT." These guys make up the seniors of the Varsity "C" Club.

"Hitch your bicycle to a bar." The seniors of the Girls' Senior High Presidential Physical Fitness Club have earned Presidential Physical Fitness Awards.

"All right—what are you guys up to?" The Boys' Presidential Physical Fitness Club would be glad to demonstrate a shuttle run.

"Anyone for some cartwheels, handsprings or somersaults?" These girls make up the Girls' Senior High Presidential Physical Fitness Club.

"Good Morning, Today is 'ow' . . . " AJ Lynam, Keith Thirkell, and Karen Thomas have the three cheery voices that greet us over the PA each morning.

Today the kitchen, tomorrow the world. Only Mrs. Good and these Sr. High FHA members know what's brewing.

These seniors and their parents have discovered that even coming to school is a family affair. They are (L-R) Mr. Shank and Bob, Mrs. Todero and Rick, Mr. Eash and Karen.

"The love of money is the root of all evil." School Bankers are Kathy Constable and Diane Suckovitch.

This smiling group of girls is known as the freshman part of the Jr. High FHA.

These are the 7th and 8th grade members of the Jr. High FHA. Mrs. Hargreaves is the advisor for these girls as well as the freshman group.

Here sits the future Watergate of America. These students are members of the Sr. High Student Council. Officers are President—

These Jr. High students make up the Jr. High Student Council. Mr. Brown is the advisor.

A coin saved is a coin earned, may be the motto of the Coin Club led by Mr. Svarney.

Neither jammed keys, nor broken pencils, nor bomb threats will stop these Student Secretaries from doing an efficient job. Mrs. Statler is the group's advisor. Officers are Becky Keim—President, Pam Noon—Vice-President, Sue Rudge—Secretary, Sue Marlowe—Treasurer, and Jackie Saylor—Recorder.

This group of energetic young people is our Spanish Club. The advisor is Miss Tinkle.

These guys make up our Stage Crew. They take care getting the stage and other necessities ready for any program.

The A V Club takes care of all the equipment many of our teachers use. Without them it would be a hectic day. Mrs. Kerr is the advisor.

These girls are members of the FNA. Our future nurses!! The advisor is Mrs. Thomas.

The members of this group, our Science Club, may one day be our next scientists. The advisor is Mr. Bridgewater.

Mr. Kososki Advisor

"Hey boss! How's this?" The editor of the CONTOWNIAN is Nancy Custer and the chief advisor is Mr. Paxton.

The school newspaper, the CONTOWNIAN, is a weekly issue of what's happening at CTAHS, and its staffs and editors should be commended, especially the advisor Mr. Paxton.

Not exactly what you would call "David Brinkleys", but very close to it are the news staff and Editor Nancy Cottom.

Trina Harman, Exchange Editor, compliments Tammy of her strong shoulder.

These students just love to hang around the P.O. The feature staff and Editor, Jamie Feathers.

These five hard working girls are our valuable typists. Lisa Degory is the editor.

The CONTOWNIAN is the weekly school newspaper of Conemaugh Township. Through the paper, the student body can voice its opinion on matters of student concern. The CONTOWNIAN also gives coverage of sports, club activities, and other schooloriented affairs. Students have an excellent opportunity to develop their creative writing skills by contributing original works to the feature page. The CON-TOWNIAN tries to keep the students well informed and strives to be the voice of Conemaugh Township Area High School.

"Big staff you have there Jen, two people!" Jenny Hemminger, Art Editor, and Mary Jo Holbay make up the Art Staff.

"On your mark, get set . . . , Stop!" The Sports Staff is made up of these five active students. Neal Mishler is the editor.

"Now where did that blinkin' cookie get to?" These students make up the entire Contownian Staff.

"Laying out is the only way to work on lay-outs!" These seven seniors have the job of writing captions for all the pictures. They are (L-R) Nancy Cottom; Rebecca Hostetler; Nancy Custer; Kathy Constable, Editor; Karen DeRubis; Gale Shipley; and Pete Zupan.

"Could this be Conemaugh Township burlesque?" The Departments Staff takes care of the teachers' pictures. They are (R-L) Cindy Sambor, Editor; Sherry Szala; Billie Saylor; Jackie Saylor; Judy Risch; Tom Moran; and Tammie Kaufman.

"This is the yearbook—we are the people." Here are all the members of the 1975 CONNUMACH Staff.

CONNU

Meet our fearless editors!

MACH

This year, the CONNUMACH has taken on a new appearance with the hope that the students would like to see a change. With the help of our advisors, Miss Will and Miss Tighe, and our company representative, Mr. John Mitchell, we decided to bring our book alive with the township and its wonderful memories."What do you like about Conemaugh Township?" and "The greatest thing about CT is . . .!" were the two more frequent questions asked by our yearbook staff. With responses from students, teachers, administration, alumni, and friends, we soon realized the true greatness of CT. Maybe that's why the class of 1975 devoted the many long hours to make this yearbook great. Our goal was to keep the CT tradition of greatness alive, and with everyone's help and with the hundreds of hours of work from the staff, the CONNUMACH has proven itself to be great (once again). Each staff organized days for picture taking, then came the arranging of the pictures on each page, the copy had to be written and typed, and last, everything was proofread over and over again. These things were done by the CONNUMACH staff, but there were also those people who "volunteered" from studies to help us, and the yearbook company who had to decipher all our scribbles and instructions. But if you'd ask anyone on the staff, they'd probably tell you it was worth it—just look how great the 1975 CONNUMACH is!

"Hey Vic! I'll trade you a Bobby Vinton picture for a Robert Redford picture, OK?" Our Classes Staff is responsible for the individual photographs. They are Annette Pero; Sheila Black; Sharon Kuzma, Editor; Kathleen Kissell; Vicki Maldet; Rita Marisa; and Lori Thomas.

"Smile. It makes people wonder what we've been up to!" Sitting down on the job are Kay Miller, Editor-in-Chief, and Michael Sotosky, Assistant Editor.

Our Five Fearless advisors are: (L-R) Mrs. Margaret Statler, Mr. Walter Kososki, Miss Elizabeth Will, Mr. Jay Volk, and Miss Mary Ann Tighe.

These members of the Senior Class presented THE BABBLING BROOKS on Friday, November 8, 1974. This 1950's comedy proved quite enjoyable to our parents who relived their child-hood days.

Cries of "Louder, louder!" could be heard by the two student directors for the play. They are Cindy Zwick and Kay Miller who were always ready to help out.

HEADIN' FOR A WEDDIN', the Junior Class play, was made a success on Friday, March 22, 1974. When you consider this crew

Mr. Joseph Salko, Mrs. Barbara (Bernat) Kreiling, Cindy Zwick, and Kay Miller were the four people who always saw a crisis in the worst way. They were the directors and student directors for the Junior Class play.

(with the help of Gloria the Skunk), the only thing possible is success!

"Homer may start the fight but Grandpappy will sure end it."

Her famous line: "Bring 'em yer selves!"

On March 22, 1974, the Junior Class presented their play entitled "Headin' for a Weddin'," a successful hillbilly comedy.

"Here are some common eating habits of CTAHS students."

"Ah! Turtledove."

"Hey Bertha! How's your love life?"

"How ducky for you!" Don, Betty, Kay, Madge, and Greg were the BIG trouble makers!

"Could this have been the couple at CTAHS that started the mono craze?"

Mr. Joseph Salko and Mrs. Joyce Leech were the fabulous advisors for "The Babbling Brooks."

"Bessie (Cheryl Shustrick) may be small, but she sure is powerful!"

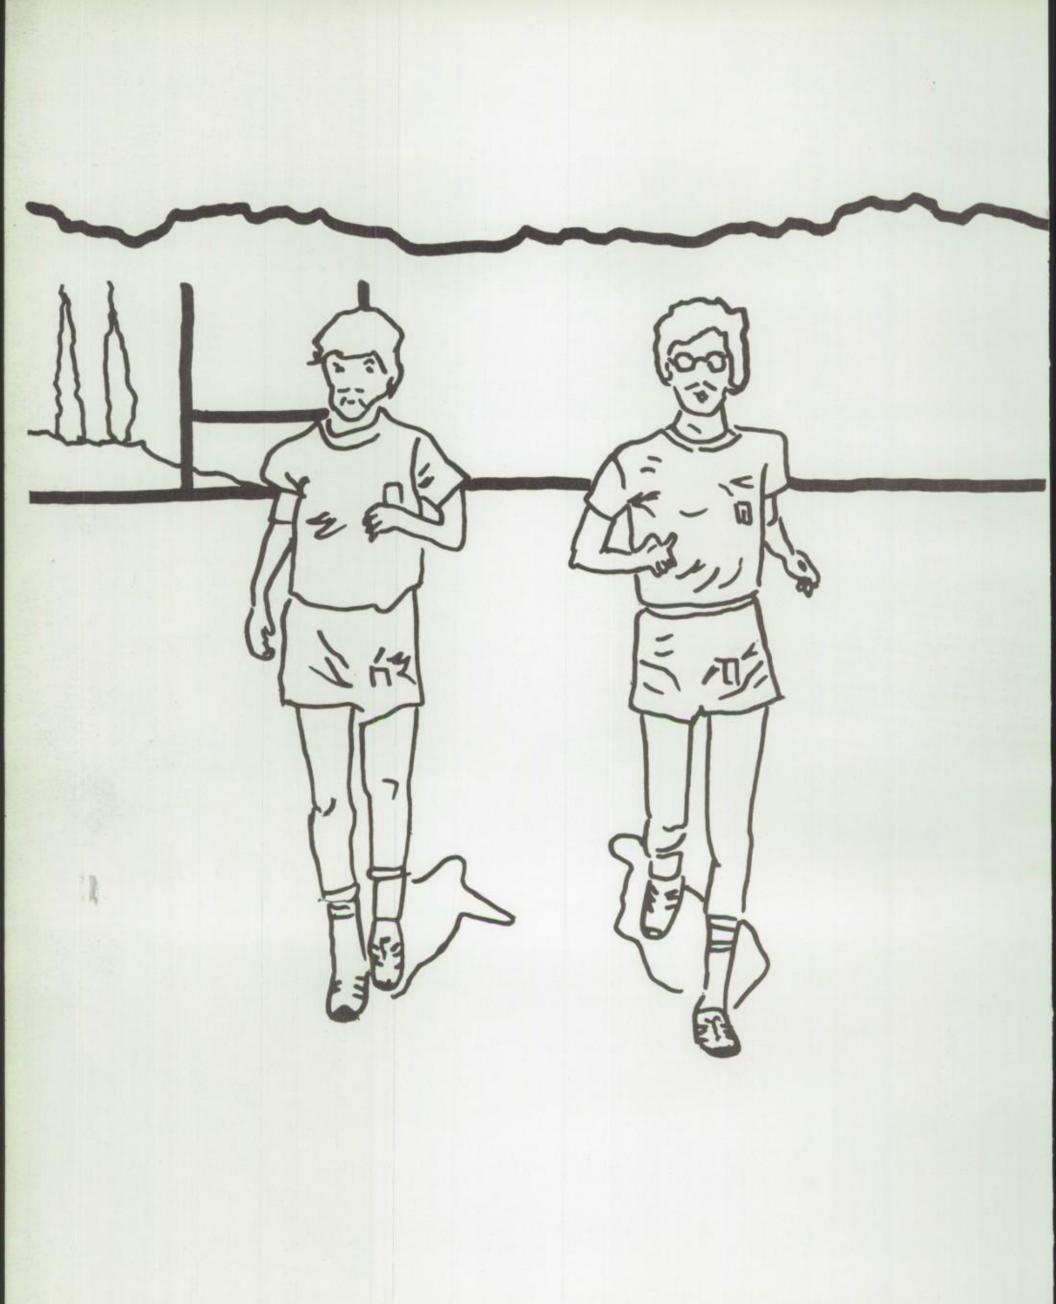

"The Babbling Brooks" was presented November 8, 1974, by the Senior Class. It was a three-act comedy written by Kurtz Gordon.

As said, this year we planned to make our yearbook different. A more personal touch and the community were added to bring our book to life. When glancing back over the pages, all can find fond memories of ours and our parents. Even our grandparents are reliving moments they thought no longer existed. In doing this, we proved why Conemaugh Township is so special to both our parents and ourselves, and what is so good about living in Conemaugh Township.

In closing, I would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to all who have helped us make this yearbook a great success: to Miss Will and Miss Tighe for all their effort and extra hours, especially Miss Will who put up with us and felt all our pain and agony as deadlines drew near; to Mr. John Mitchell who was more than just a yearbook company representative; to the staff who put in a lot of hard work; and to our parents who have helped us make it through twelve terrific years of school. —the Editor.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We would like to thank these people for lending to us and taking pictures for our yearbook.

CONGRATULATIONS!

The Senior Class of 1975 would like to extend their congratulations to the following:

Mrs. Mary Clark in receiving her Master's Degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. David Pristas on his marriage to Alana Roberts on July 5, 1975.

As I conclude my work related to this 1975 CONNUMACH, I recall the many people with whom I have worked over the past twenty years. From my first business manager, Pat Saylor in 1956, and my first co-editors, Bill Tillman and Telford Thomas in 1962, to Kay Miller and the present staff, I have been fortunate to have loyal, dedicated workers. Their creativity and cooperation have made my tasks so much easier; to all of them I want to say a hearty "Thank you."

Also, to administrators, fellow faculty members, and office personnel, whose patience and help have been invaluable in so many ways, may I express appreciation. It has been a pleasure to have their gracious acceptance of the interruptions created by picture-taking and meeting last-minute deadlines.

Finally, to Josten's-American and Mr. John Mitchell, our publishers, and to Cover Studio and Mr. Thomas Roles of School Pictures, Inc., our photographers, my personal thanks must be added to those of the '75 staff. Their fine services and production work mean so much to the success of each edition of the CONNUMACH.

May the advisors, editors, and staffs of CTAHS yearbooks still to be produced have the same help and consideration that I have received and may the CONNUMACH always provide memories for all.

Miss Elizabeth J. Will Business Staff Advisor 1956-61 General Advisor, 1962-75
